

The stylish gulet, ANGELICA (30.80 m) was commissioned for luxury cruising. By design, she is gulet, with the addition of a variety of modern conveniences, she is among the elite.

She is registered to take Adriatic overseas voyages in Italy and Montenegro but her primer role is to sail in Croatian waters. The owners are open for cooperation and propositions to accommodate clients and to keep top service on board. Two of the family of owners are professional sailors each with more than 17 years of experience on sea and are actively involved in her management by being on her helm. They are happy to charter from any day of the week and for any amount of days.

Below decks are five large, well-appointed cabins, three offering double bed accommodation, and two offering a double berth with an extra single berth. All cabins have private ensuite facilities. Ideally, the boat sleeps 10 guests. ANGELICA's salon is fitted with a sound and TV systems. A comfortable living area, the salon comes complete with bar and settee.

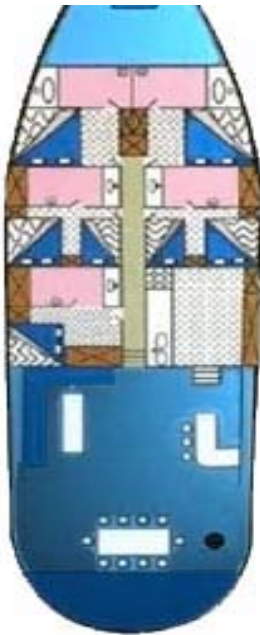

Further aft, is a shaded dining area, with a table seating 12. International and Croatian meals can be taken here during warm weather days, or in the fully enclosable salon, in cooler weather. She has a vast, open deck space and a full range of recreational equipment is available for the more active charter guest.

Allow the Captain and his Crew to show you the Croatian coast with an itinerary designed especially for you.
